

1 representatives and the senate at each regular session of the 2 legislature.

3 (6) Beginning July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, no person
4 designated as a member of a class one through class three or class five 5 board, commission, council, committee, or similar group may receive an 6 allowance for subsistence, lodging, or travel expenses if the allowance
7 cost is funded by the state general fund. Exceptions may be granted
8 under section 605, chapter 3, Laws of 2010.

9 Sec. 151. RCW 43.03.220 and 1984 c 287 s 2 are each amended to 10 read as follows:

11 (1) Any part-time board, commission, council, committee, or other 12 similar group which is established by the executive, legislative, or 13 judicial branch to participate in state government and which functions 14 primarily in an advisory, coordinating, or planning capacity shall be 15 identified as a class one group.

16 (2) Absent any other provision of law to the contrary, no money
17 beyond the customary reimbursement or allowance for expenses may be 18 paid by or through the state to members of class one groups for 19 attendance at meetings of such groups.

20 (3) Beginning July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, no person
21 designated as a member of a class one board, commission, council,
22 committee, or similar group may receive an allowance for subsistence,
23 lodging, or travel expenses if the allowance cost is funded by the 24 state general fund. Exceptions may be granted under section 605, 25 chapter 3, Laws of 2010. Class one groups, when feasible, shall use an 26 alternative means of conducting a meeting that does not require travel
27 while still maximizing member and public participation and may use a
28 meeting format that requires members to be physically present at one
29 location only when necessary or required by law. Meetings that require
30 a member's physical presence at one location must be held in state
31 facilities whenever possible, and meetings conducted using private 32 facilities must be approved by the director of the office of financial 33 management.

34 (4) Beginning July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, class one groups
35 that are funded by sources other than the state general fund are 36 encouraged to reduce travel, lodging, and other costs associated with

1 conducting the business of the group including use of other meeting
2 formats that do not require travel.

3 Sec. 152. RCW 43.03.230 and 2001 c 315 s 11 are each amended to
4 read as follows:

5 (1) Any agricultural commodity board or commission established
6 pursuant to Title 15 or 16 RCW shall be identified as a class two group 7 for purposes of compensation.

8 (2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, each member of a 9 class two group is eligible to receive compensation in an amount not to 10 exceed one hundred dollars for each day during which the member attends 11 an official meeting of the group or performs statutorily prescribed
12 duties approved by the chairperson of the group. A person shall not 13 receive compensation for a day of service under this section if the 14 person (a) occupies a position, normally regarded as full-time in 15 nature, in any agency of the federal government, Washington state 16 government, or Washington state local government; and (b) receives any 17 compensation from such government for working that day.

18 (3) Compensation may be paid a member under this section only if it 19 is authorized under the law dealing in particular with the specific 20 group to which the member belongs or dealing in particular with the 21 members of that specific group.

22 (4) Beginning July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, no person
23 designated as a member of a class two board, commission, council,
24 committee, or similar group may receive an allowance for subsistence,
25 lodging, or travel expenses if the allowance cost is funded by the 26 state general fund. Exceptions may be granted under section 605, 27 chapter 3, Laws of 2010. Class two groups, when feasible, shall use an 28 alternative means of conducting a meeting that does not require travel
29 while still maximizing member and public participation and may use a
30 meeting format that requires members to be physically present at one
31 location only when necessary or required by law. Meetings that require
32 a member's physical presence at one location must be held in state
33 facilities whenever possible, and meetings conducted using private 34 facilities must be approved by the director of the office of financial 35 management.

36 (5) Beginning July 1, 2010, through June 30, 2011, class two groups
37 that are funded by sources other than the state general fund are
